

Connecting Science + Business!

Welcome to Level Two – our new ground-breaking meeting and conference facilities in Lund! Located inside the unique The Loop-building, with the world's leading centers for material research as closest neighbours, we offer professionally designed conference rooms, top class co-working spaces, proven methods for collaboration and a network that lets you connect science and business – for real.

When The Loop opens in 2023, Altitude Meetings will operate Level Two – 1,500 square meters of meeting space, especially designed by us.

The Loop will be our second venue – we already run the much talked about conference center STUDIO Meetingpoint in Malmö.

Level Two consists of 9 large conference rooms and 90 co-working seats. Three of these rooms will be part of our Collaboration Arena. They are designed to suit the unique method that we use to find solutions to future challenges, The Bridge method.

A brand-new culture for collaboration

Altitude Meetings is re-thinking a lot of things and always testing new ways to do things. For example: 10 of the 90 co-working places will be free. People will pay with their knowledge instead of money.

Why? Because we think this will support the collaboration culture we are building.

For more info,
contact My Koskinen my@altitudemeetings.se

The Bridge by Altitude is a global impact creator and awareness promotor, with a network of entrepreneurs, researchers, business leaders, politicians and interest groups. The Bridge strives to solve sustainability challenges, and the Bridge Method is the tool. It can very effectively bring people and organisations together to solve big challenges and has been applied to projects all over the world.

Level Two is managed by true professionals. At Altitude Meetings we take pride in our work and offer top class meeting service. We provide workshops, moderations and talks as well as content for conferences, together with speakers' coaching that make you stand out of the crowd. And best food and fika you will ever get!

Prices at Level Two:

- Level 2 co-working flex desk from EUR 250/month
- The Bridge Network membership EUR 100/year

